MR. PETER MOORE DROWNED.

Edge Citizen Looking After Cattle Drowned in Little Cedar Creek.

The distressing news was phoned to The Eagle this afternoon from Edge, that Mr. Peter Moore of that place was drowned yesterday afternoon or last night. He left Edge in the afternoon on horseback to look after some cattle, and it is supposed that he saw them across Little Cedar creek and started over after them, and was overcome by the raging water and lost his life. He remained in the water all night and searching parties found him about 8 or 9 o'clock this morning.

Mr. Moore formerly lived near Bryan, but moved to the north end of the county a number of years ago. He is a brother of Judge W. J. Moore, a well known citizen now residing near Benchley.

The deceased raised a large family of children, but The Eagle is not able to give the names of all of them. His sons, Elbert, Pat, Ballard, Claud and Ernest, are among the well known citizens of Edge.

Mr. Moore was nearly seventy years of age, and was a good man and citizen. He was laid to rest at the Presbyterian cemetery at Edge at 4 o'clock this afternoon.

WEATHER MAN FEARS OVERFLOW

Believed, However, That All Danger Is Past and No Uneasiness Felt Here.

John Daly Jr., Bryan, Tex.

Houston, Tex., April 28.—Decided rise in Brazos and overflow is expected from Waco down. The stage at Waco is twenty-eight feet, a rise of sixteen feet, at Valley Junction, stage, twenty-eight feet, rise of twenty-three feet. Six feet rise last twenty-four hours. Get cattle out of low places.

BUNNEMEYER.

Section Director, United States Weather Bureau.

These warnings by those in charge of the weather service are timely and they are entitled to praise for sending them out. It is believed, however, there is not any danger of an overflow in this section. The Eagle made careful inquiry into river conditions today and found the following: At Waco, bank full and running out on east side, but on a standstill. At Highbank it lacked eight feet of going out and began falling early this morning. At Stone City, a fifteen-foot rise and lacked about fifteen feet coming out. In the lower bottom it was reported two-thirds bank full. During the night the Little Brazos rose seven inches on account of the flood near Calvert yesterday, but has been falling all day.

The creeks in the county were all very high, Wixon and Carter on the east both overflowing.

The fair weather of the afternoon, however, has restored confidence and no further fears are felt.

Later—A report reached here from Parker's place at 4 o'clock that the river was bank full and that stock from the farm was being removed and no chances taken. Clarence Elliott phoned us the report, and said the river was rising six inches an hour.

FLASHES FROM MILLICAN.

Superintendent T. W. Parker visited the school and complimented the teachers on the splendid work being done. He also praised the arrangement of classes and the good discipline maintained in the rooms.

Born to Mr. and Mrs. Roger Williams, on April 15, a girl—Frances Elizabeth.

Louis Jones of Wellborn was in Millican on business.

A. W. Buchanan visited the school a few minutes. Mr. Buchanan is always on the go, and he sees things relating to agriculture.

The Wellborn high school nine played the Millican high school last Friday afternoon. These friendly contests are always enjoyed. The score stood five to five, but the Wellborn team perhaps should have had the game.

Among those visiting Millican to see the game were Prof. Trussell, Miss Pansy McSwain, May Foster, Allean Burkhalter, Annie Maude Royder, Vivian Royder, Guy Foster, Ross McSwain, Mrs. Dee Burkhalter and others.

Rev. Mr. Waite preached at the Baptist Church Sunday night.

Mr. Autrey's sister died in Oglesby, Tex., April 27. Because of bad train connections, he was unable to go to her.—Correspondent.

Millican, Tex., April 28, 1914.

IMPORTANT MEETING COMMERCIAL CLUB

H. L. McKnight Elected Secretary and Standing Committees Appointed.

Roll call of the meeting showed present: A. W. Wilkerson, president; L. L. McInnis, M. E. Wallace, John M. Lawrence, A. M. Waldrop, R. S. Webb, J. S. Doane, J. Webb Howell, J. M. Caldwell, W. S. Wilson Jr., L. M. Hewitt, W. H. Cole, J. W. Doremus, John A. Moore and J. L. Edge.

First was the reading of the appointment of the standing committees, as follows:

Agricultural committee—J. Webb Howell, chairman; A. W. Buchanan, George A. Adams, J. M. Caldwell and Roy Hudspeeth.

A & M. College—Major L. L. McInnis, chairman; E. J. Fountain, C. S. Gainer, W. J. Coulter and John C. Vick.

Educational—John A. Moore, chairman; J. H. Allen, J. Tom Smith, E. F. Parks and J. D. Martin.

Finance committee—W. H. Cole, chairman; J. L. Edge and R. S. Webb.

Good roads committee—M. E. Wallace, chairman; O. S. Johnson, J. T. Lawler, Lamar Bethea and Allen Smith.

Immigration committee—J. S. Doane, chairman; Robert Smith and C. E. Jones.

Municipal affairs—John M. Lawrence, chairman; L. L. McInnis, Ed Hall, H. A. Burger and Eugene Edge.

New enterprise—W. S. Wilson Jr., chairman; J. A. Myers, O. E. Gammill, O. E. Saunders and George W. Smith.

Publicity committee—A. M. Waldrop, chairman; W. R. Fairman and A. J. Buchanan.

Railroad committee—H. O. Boatwright, chairman; T. K. Lawrence, J. E. Covey, W. S. Higgs and J. T. Maloney.

The report of the membership committee showed that at the present time there is now signed up $3,280 for the year, with a number of the expected members yet to see. The committee was continued, saying that they would probably be ready to make final report at the next meeting.

It was then suggested that a treasurer should be elected, and Mr. Hewitt then suggested that a secretary should be elected in order that he might outline his work and begin his permanent planning for the year as soon as possible; that it was an injustice to a secretary not to be early in the work. He also said that he was anxious to have the work transferred to the new secretary because it was almost impossible for him to keep up with the work and do it the justice to which it was entitled. Mr. Wallace then asked for a report from the secretary committee, which reported that they were corresponding with the State Association with a view to securing possible outside applications. Mr. Hewitt urged that a local man be elected secretary and urged the election of Mr. H. L. McKnight. It was then moved that we proceed to ballot for a secretary, which was done, and upon the report of the tellers a motion was made that Mr. McKnight's election be made unanimous, which was carried.

A motion then prevailed that the president and chairman of the finance committee and chairman of the secretary committee be made a committee to arrange with Mr. McKnight for his services.

Upon motion, Major L. L. McInnis was unanimously elected treasurer.

J. Webb Howell then brought up the question of ravages made by grasshoppers in the bottom, and suggested

TRAINS DELAYED.

The southbound passenger train on the International & Great Northern was several hours late yesterday on account of a washout on the line near Venus.

Trains Nos. 6 and 18, the two morning southbound passenger trains on the Houston & Texas Central, were also several hours late this morning, caused by a washout near Corsicana.

PURCHASED MEAT MARKET.

F. P. Elbrich, proprietor of the Elbrich meat market on North Main street, has purchased the Konecny & Blazek market, also on North Main street. Mr. Elbrich reports that he will consolidate the two places and will close out the newly purchased market and move the fixtures to his old place of business and continue to run at the old stand.

Help For Nervous, Weak and Thin

Dike's Tonic Hypophosphites is a general tonic that acts by supplying to the human system the chemical constituents needed to restore the tissues of the body to their normal state and to enrich and revitalize the blood.

Proved by the Test of Forty Years

Dike's Tonic Hypophosphites produces the happiest results in wasting diseases where the patient is constantly losing flesh; in nervous affections; in slow recovery from illness, where the weakened body does not gain strength as it should—as in protracted fevers, grippe, etc.; in bronchitis, coughs and affections of the lungs, and where there is lack of vitality, diminished energy and loss of appetite.

GOES WITH HENSARLING
MERCANTILE COMPANY

Jess Bullock has accepted a position with the Hensarling Mercantile Company and will enter upon his duties there on May 1. He will have charge of the office and the buggy and harness department, which they expect to make a feature of the business.

Mr. Bullock has had several years experience in the same line of business, having had charge of the office of Buchanan-Moore Company and later the buying and management of the buggy and harness department with E. F. Parks.

Mr. Bullock will be a stockholder in the company and a member of the board of directors. He is one of the city's splendid young business men and will be a valuable acquisition to the company.

NOTICE TO MY FRIENDS.

I understand a report has been circulated that I would have made a race for tax collector if Mr. McCulloch had not announced. This report is not true; I made up my mind that I would not be a candidate and so advised Mr. McCulloch before he announced. My business engagements prevented me from making the race and made it impossible for me to be a candidate at this time.

Very truly,
W. O. HOLMES.

STRENGTHENING FOUNDATION

C. A. Lewis is at work with a force of hands reinforcing the foundation of the First Methodist Church. The weakness of the foundation has been giving trouble for some time at the heavy rains of the fall and winter caused them to sink in places, the strain producing cracks in the walls. It is hoped the reinforcing of the foundations will prevent any further damage to the church.

NOTICE, CARPENTERS.

All members of Carpenters' Loc. No. 1855 are hereby notified to be present at the Labor Temple, Thursday, April 30, at 7:30 sharp. Very important business will come before the meeting.
